

JOHN SMEDLEY

John Smedley is a British luxury brand, manufacturing fine-gauge knitwear since 1784. Its distinctive quality and attention to detail has gained worldwide recognition. John Smedley is most famous for its iconic, 3-button polo shirt. A luxury brand with roots in the Derbyshire countryside, John Smedley regularly features in some of the world's most prestigious fashion magazines.

The John Smedley story began over 229 years ago in 1784 founded by Peter Nightingale and John Smedley. Today, John Smedley is distributed in over 40 countries worldwide and present in the USA, Europe and India.

John Smedley produces 24 and 30 gauge hand-finished, fully fashioned knitwear for men and women. There are 2 collections a year for Spring/Summer and Autumn/Winter. For Spring/Summer John Smedley's Sea Island Cotton is used to produce beautiful knitwear. For winter, John Smedley uses extra fine Merino Wool. They've been the materials of choice for many decades, because of the unique and luxurious feel, amongst many other great qualities.
